

THE BURREN

By Tom Gill

The Burren has rugged and bare landscape with flat areas of rock surface.

The Ailwee caves are in the Burren.

The main rock in the Burren is Limestone.

The Burren attracts a lot of tourists every year.

The Burren is a karst landscape.

The Burren has limestone pavements.

The Pollinagcolm swallow hole in the Burren is more than 30m wide and 20m deep.

The Poulnabrone dolmen is in the Burren.

